In addition, there were visitors from other educational institutions from the state of Maharashtra. And everyone appreciated work done by the freshman students.

The objective of PRAYOG exhibition is to promote PEER LEARNING, as students learn from other projects and what they can incorporate from the other projects. During exhibition, only two students demonstrate the project done by them and the other two of would just observe the other projects, for different solutions for the same problems. Hence objective of peer learning is achieved through the exhibition.

And also team of judges was there to identify the best project among each of need statements. And the selected best project is kept as a HALL OF FAME in tinkering lab. Students were really excited to see their projects in the hall of fame.
